IRBY

I. Edmund Irby 1675-1733, Parish of Martin's Brandon, Pr. George Co. married ca. 1723, Anne Blunt, dau. of Thomas Blunt, Surry Co. This was Edmund Irby's second marriage.

II. John Irby of Sussex Co., 1715-1761, m. Mary Blunt b. March 25, 1727-d. March 20, 1774. She was a dau. of Richard Blunt of Surry and gr.dau. of Thomas Blunt and his wife, Priscilla Browne, dau. of Col. William Browne of Four Mile Tree.

III. William Irby b. Oct. 29, 1752-d. Dec. 5, 1811, moved to Nettoway Co. 1780 and built Pleasant Hill, where his children were born, where he died and was buried. His was the life of a busy planter; at Pleasant Hill the best traditions of old Virginia were held sacred. On Jan. 9, 1781, William Irby m. Jane Edmunds, b. Dec. 18, 1761-d. Oct. 13, 1782, dau. of John Edmunds, long Burgess for Sussex Co.

IV. Edmund Irby, b. Nov. 1, 1781-d. Aug. 19, 1829; married Feb. 19, 1805, Frances Briggs Lucas, b. March 7, 1788-d. Feb. 17, 1846, dau. of John Lucas of Greenville Co. On "Battes" plantation, given him by his father, Edmund Irby built a new house and changed the name to Poplar Hill. Here he and his wife entertained lavishly, especially when the Bellefonte Races were held a few miles away. This was a noted track in those days and Edmund Irby raised fine horses and ran them.

Among their distinguished guests, none received a warmer welcome than that Va. statesman, John Randolph of Roanoke, who, in his will, devised Edmund Irby "the next choice of my mares and any one of my horses or colts to be selected by himself". He said Edmund was the best farmer in Va.; very probably he was the wealthiest of all the Nettoway Irbys, a large land and slave owner.

V. Benjamin Irby, b. Sept. 1, 1820-killed in battle at Selma, Ala., April 2, 1865. He and two of William Blunt Irby's sons went south. On Oct. 18, 1853, Benj. Irby m. Henrietta Fitzhugh Anderson, b. July 5, 1820-d. Dec. 26, 1897 at Beaumont, Texas. She was a dau. of Nathaniel Anderson and his wife, nee Mildred Digges Moon, formerly of Albemarle.

Note.

From court and Bible records, long treasured by the Nettoway Irbys, at the request of the family, Mr. W.R. Turner, friend and genealogist, has compiled an Irby chart and placed a copy in the Va. State Library. From Turner's chart, the above was made and certified by court records, as far as possible.

The book containing the will of Edmund Irby(I) has been destroyed since the Irbys copied the will and with the book, very probably, went the name of his first wife.

Dear Mrs Chapman:

Yours letter to Rev. Wm Doty to our branch of the Doty family -

The Halifax Branch of the Dotys I think are of the same family, but I have only our line, although I think Charles Doty went from Amelia to Halifax, and when my great grandfather Edmund Doty died he had a good deal of property in Halifax County. The Charles Doty above mentioned was quite a prominent man in Amelia County, being a colonial justice & also
